

BMO's Top 5 Snowbird ETFs

Attention snowbirds looking to diversify their portfolios outside of Canada

Investors need to understand the potential withholding tax and U.S. estate tax implications on foreign investments. Wealthy Canadians looking for a place to invest their greenbacks but who are also concerned about U.S. estate taxes, might be better suited to invest in a Canadian listed ETF or mutual fund.

Canadian mutual funds and Canadian listed ETFs (even if they invest in U.S. equity or debt securities), are generally not considered to be U.S. assets for estate tax purposes.*

BMO ETFs presents our top picks for snowbirds. The following ETFs offer:

- No U.S. Estate Tax Exposure
- No T-1135 Foreign Income Verification form required
